SHIPS HORSES TO ST. LOUIS

Simon Spry shipped a carload of horses to St. Louis Tuesday, the load being accompanied by Herbert Tompkins, Simon going on 42 last night. These horses were bought in this vicinity, which goes to show that more horses are raised here than are needed for home use. While blooded horses are being shipped in to improve the breed in this part of Nebraska, it is a pleasure to note that there is a surplus being raised to ship out, with prospects that this surplus will increase, as farmers and ranchmen are giving more attention to raising horses, especially the better grade of stuff.

UNION MEETINGS

Arrangements Completed for Evangelistic Services to be Commenced Sunday, Mar. 17.

TABERNACLE TO BE ERECTED

Owing to the general interest which will center in the union revival meetings that have been arranged for in Alliance to commence the 17th of next month, The Herald will devote a department to the same until after the close which will be April 14. Without doubt the meetings will attract a great deal of attention and of course it would naturally be expected that the local press will devote considerable space to them. For several reasons we believe it will be more agreeable to our readers, whether interested in these meetings or not, to put such matter in a department devoted to that purpose.

The meetings will be in charge of Evangelist Oscar Lowry. He will be accompanied by Mr. Moody, a singer, and Mrs. Moody who will assist as a Christian worker.

The building committee have the blue prints for the plans of the tabernacle, work on which will be commenced within a few days. It will be 60x120 feet and will have a seating capacity of 1,500.

A large chorus, composed of local singers, will be a feature of the meetings.

Evangelist Lowry and Mr. and Mrs. Moody are now at Beatrice where they have been engaged in evangelistic work for the past two or three weeks.

The Beatrice Daily Sun in an editorial speaks of the work there as follows:

"The evangelist who has been addressing the people of this city for the past two weeks has made many friends, and a great many people who were somewhat doubtful at first, of the desirability of importing an evangelist, are now warm supporters of the movement. The preacher has not indulged in some of the practices commonly resorted to by evangelists for the purpose of attracting attention."

DEATH OF SISTER RENATA

Brilliant Educator Goes to Final Reward

At 7:30 last Saturday evening occurred the death of Sister Renata, at St. Agnes Academy. The deceased came here from the mother home at Stella, New York, last summer, being then in frail health. She was prominent in the educational work of this order, being teacher in the higher classes and studies. Of indomitable will power she retained her physical and mental faculties to the last. But a weak heart that grew constantly weaker finally overcame her ambition and Saturday night she passed into that mysterious realm where she so desired to be in communion with her Creator.

The funeral of Sister Renata occurred from the convent chapel, on Monday morning, at 7 o'clock, after requiem mass had been offered up by Rev. Father Donnelly. Six Sisters of the Academy acted as pallbearers and twelve students followed the casket, bearing white lilies as an insignia of her virginal life given to the Master. Two tiny girls preceded them, carrying lighted tapers, which spoke most touchingly of the bride's coming. Owing to the storm of snow that prevailed, only a few drove to the cemetery. If the old adage holds good, blessed is the passing of Sister Renata, whose casket was showered with the moisture from heaven.

Deceased leaves an aged mother and a brother, a Jesuit priest, both of whom live in the state of New York.

Blessed are they who die in the Lord, and this surely can be said of Sister Renata.

Mrs. Edith Swan-Zediker entertained Monday evening in honor of Miss Rowena Kromer of Gering. The entertainment was in the form of a musical, music being furnished by some of Mrs. Zediker's accomplished pupils, Misses Beulah and Dorothy Smith, and Miss Hattie Renasold.

Mrs. Jas. Martin of Edgemont is visiting Mrs. W. H. Miller.
